NEXT MEETING: TUES. JANUARY 27th, 1981.

PROGRAM: C.N.A. FILM SLIDES.

SUBJECT: NEWFOUDLAND PAPER CURRENCY.

The C.N.A. slide program on Newfoundland Paper Currency will be the feature of our January meeting. The notes of Newfoundland are among the most beautiful and colourful notes in the World's currency, This should be a very interesting program. January is also our annual meeting when the financial reports will be read.

Last Meeting; December 16th. was our Christmas Party at North York. The evening was devoted mostly to socializing although we did have a short business meeting. The on time attendance draw, with $4.00 as the prize was won by Harvey Farrow. The prize will start again at $2.00 this month.

Ed Keetch gave a short, but interesting talk on union buttons of General Motors. Ed has a collection of the union buttons going back to the Thirties, almost Fifty years of history. Harvey Farrow gave a talk accompanied by a display of Architectural Medals of Toronto, John Regitko gave a short talk on Oddities in Paper Money. Unfortunately your editor was out of the building, picking up the chicken while the talks were being delivered and cannot give a more detailed report on them.

Our thanks once again to Jean Orr and her helpers for a delicious feast. Jean supplemented the Colonel Saunders Chicken dinner with a variety of salads, cakes & cookies, coffee & orange drink. We all enjoyed the meal. Thanks again Jean.

In addition to the gift exchange, many of the members & guests went home with extra gifts as a result of being winners in the free draw. About 10 prizes were distributed to the lucky ticket holders.

Annual Show: Plans are well underway for our Annual Coin Show. We will not have the usual White elephant Sale. This will give us room for three more bourse tables. Due to an increase in rent of the hall the bourse fees are $20.00 per table with preference being given to bourse dealers at our previous shows. Those dealers and any members who wish to have tables on March 7th. must make their application to Dan Bowyer or Harvey Farrow by the January 27th. meeting night. The extra tables will then be allotted to new applicants.

Displays: We are looking forward to having a variety of displays. The displays will be judged on the no category system. Cash prizes will be awarded with the 1st. prize of $25.00 for best display and $15.00 for second and $10.00 for Third. Contact George Fraser if you wish to enter a display.
