The North York Coin Club Annual Christmas Party was held on December 12, 1985. As expected, it was a great success.

Albert Kasman spoke about his Christmas and Hanukka woods which has collected over the years. He had over 280 on display.

Al Bliman explained the significance of the nine candles that appear on the Hanukka candelabrum. The one candle which is situated higher than the others is called the 'shamos', or leader.

Three years ago, Pressed Metal Products began to issue personal medals for this festive season. Wally Ciona discussed many of the various designs and signatures.

Jim Heifetz reminisced about receiving silver dollars as Hanukka gifts when he was younger. This sparked his interest in coin collecting.

Harvey Farrow talked about two medals from the Wellings Mint. These brought season's greetings in the late sixties. He also showed various flats which he had received.

Lucille Colson was presented with a special plaque. This was to mark her 15 years as a member of the NYCC. For 13 of these years, she has been our secretary.
